Victory Over Tufts Makes Tigers Slight Favorites.

Yale and Harvard Both Coming Fast Now.

New York, Oct. 16.—There are three things which stand out today as probable forecasts of the turn of the wheel in dropping the eastern football championship this fall.

In the first place Princeton takes front rank thru its victory over Tufts, a team which defeated Yale. Next, the smoothness of Yale's attack and the results it gained bode ill for future opponents of the Blue. And last, Harvard begins to appear as a trouble maker since its game succeeded in making North Carolina do tricks and go down to defeat.

Harvard's victory by a score of 21 to 0 seems to be a certain indication that Percy Haughton is going to get some speed out of his engine after all, the doubters are again giving the Crimson a chance with Yale and Princeton.

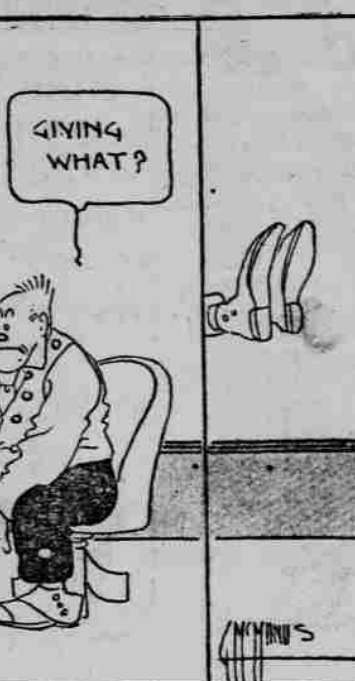

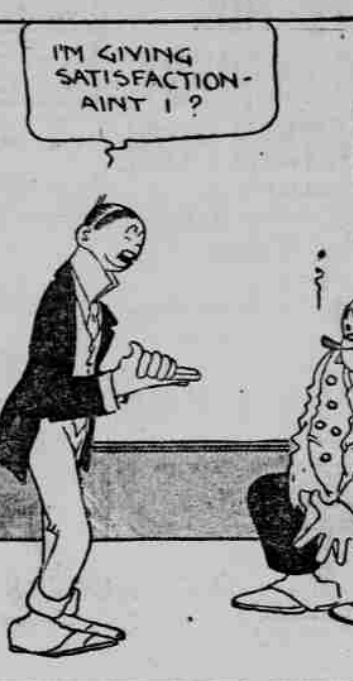

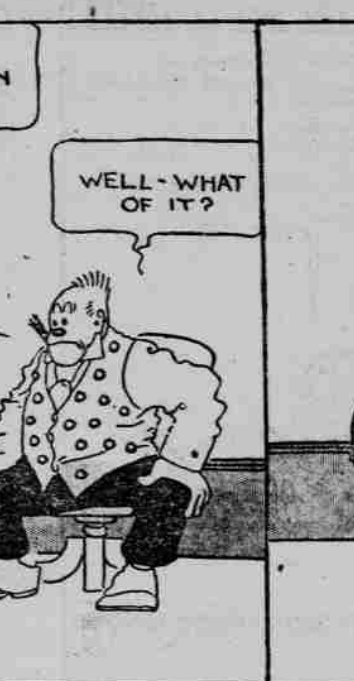

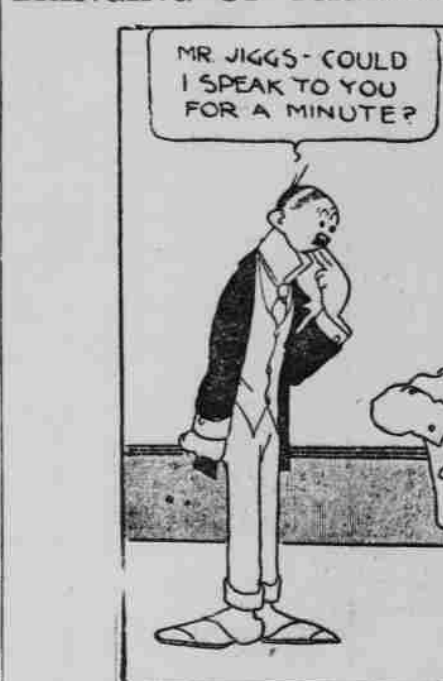

Yale's Revival.

The revival of the bulldog spirit at Yale has put a lot of pep into backers of the New Haven team. Instead of being satisfied with a good game against Lehigh, in which the Blue ran up a count of 12 to 0, Ted Jones and Captain Black began to kick as soon as the game was over and now they are ready to put some more fight and nerve into Old Eli's heart.

All reports show that Yale's kicking was in the Lehigh game, so that it is the point on which the coaches will concentrate their energy. But other points were as near perfect as might be expected in an eleven that had the coaching Yale has experienced.

Down at Princeton Speedy Rush is worried. About the best thing the Tigers did in their conflict with Tufts was to fumble. They did it consistently and that was about the only consistent part of their play. The line sparked at some stages and made it possible for the Princeton team to break thru and miss up the Tufts trick formation. But fumbling was the one thing the Tigers had been drilled against and the fact that it was so flagrant did some things to Rush's plans.

Haughton at Harvard.

With Percy Haughton back on the job Harvard is sure to be given some stiff work. Haughton's hand showed in the North Carolina game. There is no doubt that his presence did much for the Crimson. In the contest and doubtless it will do much for an eleven which apparently has not been able to find itself.

Cornell coaches are well satisfied with the showing made against Williams. A huge score was run up by the Ithacans and now the men are being pointed for the clash with Harvard. Swarthmore, considered a weak team by the use of a finely developed forward pass, worked its way to a touchdown in the Philadelphia game. It will be against this recurrence that Bob Fowlwell is going to drill his men.

Taken from every angle it is made easy for any one to see that it is anybody's championship yet, with no team as yet weak enough to be considered out.

SEEING TOPEKA FILM

Kansas Avenue in All Its Glories at Cozy Theatre.

The camera sees it all, assert the film producers, and Topekan, during the next two days, will be enabled to see this city, and possibly themselves, as others see them. Six weeks ago a moving picture company's cameramen filmed two reels of pictures in Topeka. While the most of the films are taken from the streets, including the state house, Memorial hall, the Capper building, the State Journal building and others.

The pictures are being shown in the Cozy theatre. The first exhibition was this afternoon. They will be shown again tonight, tomorrow afternoon and tomorrow night. In addition to the Topeka picture, Charlie Chaplin, King of silent comedians, will be featured in "The Count."

Health Good at Boys' Industrial School, Says Charles.

Reorganization of Work Soon—Mart Troxell in Charge.

"Not a boy is in the hospital," declares H. W. Charles, superintendent of the Boys' Industrial school. "There never was a better condition of health in the school."

"The work about the grounds is to be completed within the next ten days. Then we'll plan a reorganization for the winter. Practically all of the hay and potatoes are in and the granaries are filled."

"The Boy Scout hike of last week was so much fun that the weather permitting, there will probably be another one the latter part of the week."

Mart Troxell, son of M. F. Troxell, the school chaplain, was in charge of the Sunday school services yesterday. The evening services were dispensed with. The elder Mr. Troxell has been at the bedside of his son, Millard, the past week, in Hawarden, Iowa. The patient is reported somewhat improved but still in a serious condition.

HOLLAND IS ACTIVE

Russell Democrat Candidate for State Representative.

George W. Holland, one of the heaviest holders of property in Russell, is candidate this fall on the Democratic ticket for representative from Russell county. Holland located in Russell in 1888 and has acquired several business and residence buildings in the thriving western Kansas town, and supervises 1,900 acres of wheat land and is the guiding spirit from a financial standpoint in the Russell mill and the Russell fair association.

ADAMS BROS. BUILDING

Five Thousand Additional Feet of Floor Space Nearly Ready.

A two-story building, 50x50 feet in size, which will add 5,000 feet of floor space to the Adams Brothers Manufacturing Printing company, is near completion. The building is directly west of the present structure occupied by the company at Seventh and Jackson streets. A. Marburg is owner of the lot and is doing the building.

Upon the completion of the new building, Adams Brothers will have 15,000 feet of floor space, the present building being 10,000 feet in dimensions. The first floor of the new building is in reality a basement but it is very high. Steel windows permitting light in abundance will be installed.

The addition will be used exclusively by the manifold printing department of the firm. This department has grown by leaps and bounds in recent years and sales books are being sold in Alaska and Mexico. There are only twenty concerns in the United States competing in this line. The considerable new machinery will be installed.

COHAN OFF RESERVATION

Miss Crossman Denies His Statement That Profession Is for Wilson.

New York, Oct. 16.—Henrietta Crossman has challenged George M. Cohan to a debate on Wilson vs. Hughes.

Miss Crossman is to speak for the Republican and Mr. Cohan for the Democratic candidate for president. If he accepts, Miss Crossman in a letter to Mr. Cohan, said she was a non-professional—asked me the other day if it was not a fact that the stage people of the country were a unit for the reelection of President Wilson. I inquired for his authority for such a statement and he replied:

"No less an authority than George M. Cohan. What do you think of it?"

"I don't think much of it," I answered. "Mr. Cohan as a theatrical authority is a good comedian for the stage."

"Now, Mr. Cohan, if you still seriously believe that the people in our profession are for Wilson and that the desecration of the support I will meet you in a joint debate, in any hall or theater you may name, and endeavor to convince you to the contrary."

ODDITIES CULLED FROM DAY'S NEWS

WASHINGTON.—A mighty bid for the title of the world's bravest cop has been made by Patrolman Barbee, who has twice arrested the father of Chief of Police Pullman for violating the auto parking ordinance.

TOLEDO.—While the warden snatched his lips over his Sunday dinner seven prisoners sawed a hole thru the roof of the city workhouse and made the escape.

AKRON.—Wall flowers, stop drooping! Miss Mary Steeds, physical director at Akron university, says any girl may be beautiful if she will substitute dumbbells for the powder puff.

CLEVELAND.—Jeffrey Gibbons is a "copper" when on duty, but off duty how he does sleep. While he slept a thief entered his home and stole his badge from beneath his pillow.

CHICAGO.—How would you like to have the job of Dunning, the painter, and George Reagel, the sculptor, who are judging six hundred girls for models in the style show here?

CHICAGO.—David Starr Jordan, president of Leland Stanford university, is not deterred by failure of the Ford peace expedition, and is going to a peace meeting at The Hague in a few months, he said here today.

CHICAGO.—Hop Sing Tong, Chinese clubhouse, celebrated. Neighbors kicked. "The have a permit for music," answered Police Lieutenant McMahon, "it sounds like a permit for a boiler factory, but I'm not a judge of music. We can't interfere."

CHICAGO.—The apartment house at La Chinese, is Chicago's latest. It is on the fashionable Lake Shore drive and fitted the style of the Chinese republic. Occupants are white admirers of Chinese ways.
